3. User Responsibilities and Conduct

- User-Generated Content:
You are solely responsible for all content you post on AUSee—including reviews, comments, and any other contributions (“User Content”). You must ensure that your User Content is accurate, respectful, and complies with all applicable laws, including intellectual property and data protection laws.
- Content Ownership and Rights:
Only post content that you own or have permission to share. You grant AUSee a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, display, and distribute your User Content in connection with the Site.

AUSee is a community-driven platform aimed at helping students make informed decisions about their courses by sharing experiences and reviews. While we strive to foster a helpful environment, AUSee does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or reliability of any User Content. The information on the Site is provided “as is,” and reliance on any User Content is at your own risk.

You must not use AUSee to distribute content that is harmful, false, misleading, or unlawful. This includes, but is not limited to, hate speech, harassment, or any form of discriminatory language.

- System Abuse:

Any attempts to disrupt or compromise the functionality or security of the Site—such as the use of automated bots or other disruptive technologies—are strictly prohibited.

- Moderation:

AUSee employs a decentralized, community-based moderation system. Content that is flagged, receives a significant number of downvotes, or otherwise violates these Terms may be archived or removed without prior notice.

6. Intellectual Property

- Site Content:

All content on the Site that is not User Content is the property of AUSee or its licensors and is protected by copyright and other intellectual property laws. No portion of this content may be reproduced, distributed, or used without our express written permission.
